

DM-624

DEPUTIES' MEETING

Wednesday, 26 March 1953

PRESENT: Mr. Dulles, General Cabell, Col. White, [redacted] 25X1
25X1
Messrs. [redacted], Sheldon (part of mtg), Kirtpatrick,
[redacted]

25X1

Mr. Dulles:

a) Noted several cables from Mr. Wisner (IN 47585, 47988, 48196)
respecting [redacted] and asked [redacted] to pass selected 25X1 25X1 portions of the information contained in these messages to the Department of State through the [redacted] office.

25X1

b) Noted he had discussed with Assistant Secretary of State, Walter Robertson, the proposal that CIA send two additional people to [redacted] and said Secretary Robertson had concurred.
The Director pointed out that he had agreed with Robertson, however, that these people would not depart without our making a final check with him.
After some discussion it was agreed that DDCI, Messrs. [redacted] 25X1 would review this situation and make the final decision.

25X1

NOTE: The Director commented that it would be wise for [redacted] to discuss this matter "one more time" with Secretary Robertson.

25X1

c) Raised the question of air support [redacted] 25X1
and after some discussion it was agreed that [redacted] would take up 25X1
this with Assistant Secretary Walter Robertson and obtain the Department of State's authority to [redacted] 25X1
[redacted] 25X1

25X1

[redacted]

25X1

a) Referred to a cable from [redacted] suggesting 25X1

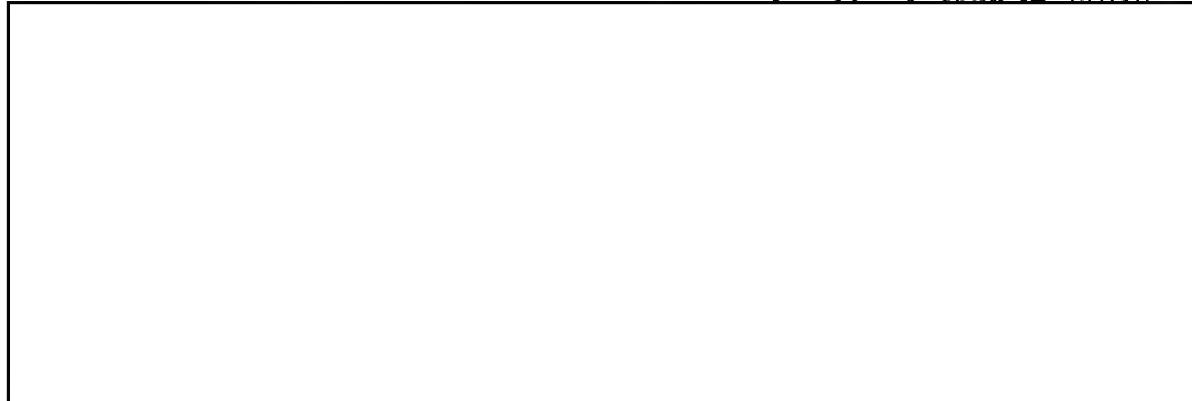

[redacted]

25X1

25X6

the Director's thought that we should not become involved in this since [redacted] was good enough, and he (DCI)
does not want to run the risk of impairing it during the trip, should it become necessary, as it will, to advise him that there are certain things that he should do and should not do.
